- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Candidates with humanities experience are also encouraged

Primary Responsibilities

- Teach writing and literature-based classes including a range of diverse genres including Shakespeare, poetry, memoirs, and creative writing
- Collaborate with teams to design and implement an interdisciplinary, thematic-based, experiential curriculum
- Lead an advisory group
- Participate in all aspects of faculty life, including outdoor education and service learning
- Participate in conversations and programs that promote diverse thinking, social justice, and community engagement
- Foster a love of learning and develop the writer in every student

At San Francisco Day School...

We believe that when intellect and imagination are intertwined, our students delight in the discovery of connection: in their academic and creative pursuits, in their relationships, and in all that they experience here. Every day we help our students emerge as flexible and resourceful learners. Because when we do, our students light up with the call and capacity to take on the complexities of their day and of a diverse world.

SF Day At a Glance:

- Independent, co-educational school
- Located in the heart of San Francisco
- Serving approximately 400 students
- SF Day devotes a significant amount of time and resources to seek and support ongoing professional development opportunities for faculty and staff

Ready to Join SF Day?

SF Day celebrates and welcomes faculty and staff who reflect the broad range of diversity in the Bay Area. We encourage People of Color and LGBTQ+ persons to apply. SF Day offers excellent benefits and a competitive salary.

Please apply online with your resume, salary expectations, and a thoughtful cover letter explaining why your experience is appropriate for this position.
